

Educators

The Educator in each home is responsible for ensuring that all staff have access to mandatory, relevant and up-to-date education and training. They are given support in their role by our Senior Educator that oversees the programs at each of the homes and through the Learning and Development Committee, that meet twice yearly. To be employed as an educator you must have your Certificate IV in Workplace Training and have experience working in aged care.

