Date of Birth: 02/08/2002

My name is Camryn Pryke and I am a current third year student at Western Sydney University studying a Bachelor of Nursing. I am endeavouring to gain further experience in the workforce whilst developing personal skills. I have really enjoyed my previous experience with my casual and part-time jobs. I am eager to gain employment within the healthcare industry as I will graduate at the end of this year. During my studies I have completed placements in Aged Care, Radiology, a Medical/Surgical ward and Community Palliative Care. I am willing to meet in person if required for an interview at a time convenient for you.
