About Me

I am a collaborative and approachable individual who thrives in a team-oriented work environment.

Continual growth within my professional field is a personal priority, as I am constantly driven to expand my knowledge and skills. Punctuality, dedication, and proactivity are qualities that define my work ethic.

My goal is to both contribute to the company's progress and enhance my own professional development.

With over a year of experience as an elderly caregiver, I have cultivated invaluable expertise in directly assisting and supporting older individuals.

My responsibilities encompass providing essential care, organizing recreational activities, and administering basic first aid during urgent and emergency situations.
