Bec Clisdell: Reference for Fiona Black I am the secondary PDHPE Teacher at Oran

Park Anglican College, Oran Park, where I have taught for the past four years as well as a Youth Group leader at Unite Youth with Harrington Park Anglican Church, having been a congregational member for the past five Years. I have known Fiona for the past two and a half years and I am delighted to be able to write a character reference for her. From my experience of Fiona, she is committed to learning and trying things outside of her comfort zone. She is very punctual and extremely organised, forming loyal relationships with her peers. She is always eager to participate in different activities as a learner as well as taking a leadership role. Fiona handles responsibility well, showing sensitivity and concern for others. She is hard- working, self-motivated, organised, creative, works independently and in group situations and she has a way of including others who struggle to make friends. In addition to this, Fiona displays perseverance and determination as seen through her recent completion of her Bronze Duke of Edinburgh hike. In conclusion, Fiona has shown she is a capable learner, friendly, a strong leader, an excellent teacher, an encourager and is well respected by her peers. She has always proved to be mature and practical. I am happy to provide further knowledge on Fiona if required. Yours Sincerely, Rebecca K. Clisdell Bachelor of Education (Human Movement and Health education) Masters in Child and Adolescent Welfare.
