ABOUT ME

I am a dedicated and dependable Assistant in Nursing (AIN) with extensive hands on experience in providing high quality care to elderly residents within Australian aged care facilities. I am deeply committed to delivering compassionate, person centred care that preserves the dignity, independence, and cultural values of each resident. I excel in collaborative team environments, working closely with Registered Nurses, carers, and allied health professionals to promote the physical, emotional, and social wellbeing of residents. With a strong commitment to infection control, workplace safety, and accurate documentation, I consistently adhere to the Aged Care Quality Standards to ensure the highest level of care is maintained at all times.
